SCHOOL BUDGET TO BE DISCUSSED

First informal discussion of the requested $3.3 million budget for the Palm Springs Unified School District will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in the Frances Stevens School here.

Schools Supt. Dwight E. Twist said that the budget, which is expected to receive "considerable paring" before its adoption, will be opened to questions from the public as well as the Board of Education members who attend the meeting.

THE PRELIMINARY budget of the district requires approval on or before July 1, Dr. Twist said. The superintendent noted that the requests of the district's six elementary schools, one junior high and one senior high school—altogether with the needs of the various departments and services—will be considered in this series of several meetings.

The heads of the various schools and departments outlined major needs in last week's regular meeting of the Board of Education.

INCLUDED IN THE requests were these:

—A plea for landscaping at Desert Hot Springs School by Principal

Japan Elects Pro-West Party To Parliament

TOKYO (UPI) — The pro-western Liberal Democratic party swept to a clear majority in the upper house of the Japanese Parliament today in tabulation of final returns from Tuesday's elections.

Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's Liberal Democrats conservatives campaigned on a platform of close military ties with the United States and no recognition of the Chinese Communist government.

The socialists took the opposite stand and wanted a four-way peace pact with the U. S., Red China and Russia.

CITY'S REALTORS TO PROBE COUNTY'S NEW LAND LAWS

A panel discussion of proposed land division laws under the newly-drafted Riverside County subdivision ordinance will be held when the Palm Springs Real Estate Board meets for breakfast at 8 a.m., tomorrow, in Biltmore Hotel here.

pal Joseph R. Kanya. He told the board that the school has had no general work in "at least two years." Kanya's statement drew a facetious remark from Assistant Superintendent Jack Miles who corrected the principal: "We put in some oleanders over there."

—Principal Warren Danielson asked for more buildings at Cielo Vista School, described as the "second largest school in the district." Told that another school is planned for the area, Danielson asked that "temporary buildings" be used to meet the anticipated 25 per cent hike in enrollment.

—NEEDS AT KATHERINE Finch, detailed by Principal Chester Sproule, included an access gate to allow cafeteria deliveries to the door of the facility. He told the board:

"We propose a gate—near Board Member (Frank) Muller's front door—where trucks can pick up garbage, deliver footstuffs and so on."

Miles commented at this point: "That'll sell it."

—Principal Eileen Carey of Frances Stevens School said that her school needs painting, tree trimming and general maintenance work to prevent "further deterioration" of the community's oldest schoolhouse.

She said that she couldn't find her request for $23,000 worth of painting in the budget but that she considered it a "drastic" need.

AFL-CIO Bids For Okeh of Labor Reform

Stripped-Down Bill Would 'Get Crooks' In Nation's Unions

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The AFL-CIO urged the House today to approve a stripped-down version of the Senate-passed union reform bill. It said this would "get at the crooks" in the labor movement.

AFL-CIO President George Meany made the appeal in testimony prepared for two House labor subcommittees now considering reform legislation.

MEANY SAID THE Senate bill in its present form would do "grave and irreparable harm" to unions under the guise of fighting corruption.

He criticized major features of the Kennedy-Ervin bill which passed the Senate 90-1 April 25 and attacked a measure offered by Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R-Pa.) as "viciously anti-labor."

Meany accused leading business organizations of trying to abolish unions while they "piously pretend" to be concerned about racketeering.

THE U. S. CHAMBER of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers both oppose the Senate measure on grounds it doesn't go far enough to curb union picketing and boycott activities.

"The employer organizations which have done exactly nothing about corruption in the ranks of employers are seeking to convince this Congress that the measure which passed the Senate was 'too weak,'" Meany said.

"THEY ARE NOT interested in getting at corruption either in their own ranks . . . or in the ranks of the labor movement."

"As a matter of fact, all too many employers have shown a desire for doing business with the crooks who masquerade as trade unionists rather than deal with bona fide trade union leaders for the simple reason that the crooks give them a better deal."

The AFL-CIO chief backed reform legislation based on public reporting of union finances, control of union trusteeships, regulation of union elections, and federal encouragement of ethical practice codes. He also advocated compulsory disclosure of employers' spending on labor-management relations.

Village to Get 3,500 Shots of Polio Vaccine

Palm Springs residents were today invited to share a March of Dimes "dividend" in the form of 3,500 free anti-polio vaccine injections.

Desert Hospital Director Robert Henwood said Salk polio vaccine shots will be offered to the public at the hospital from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturday.

ALL LOCAL DOCTORS who are members of the County Medical Association have volunteered their services to give the immunizing shots at no cost.

The shots are provided through a special fund maintained in Riverside County by the National Polio Foundation.

"ANYONE WHO FAILS to take advantage of this opportunity needlessly endangers his own life and those of others about him," said Dr. Herman M. Stone, president of the County Medical Association. "It requires less than a minute to get the life-saving vaccine."

County officials suggested that residents receiving the shots donate $1.

COSTA RICAN INVASION FAILING, SAYS NICARAGUA

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) — Loyal troops reported victories today over airborne invaders from Costa Rica, but government spokesmen said three invasion schooners were on the way from Cuba by sea.

Lt. Orlando Gutierrez, leader of a patrol which chased one rebel force from the plains of Olama into the mountains of central Nicaragua, displayed rifles and machine guns captured in the battles.

GOVERNMENT SOURCES made no specific mention of casualties, but said bloody trails left by 100 or so invaders indicated they carried wounded with them on their flight into the hills.

The rebel radio claimed that 33 persons had been killed or wounded in a series of clashes on "four fronts" in Nicaragua. It said the heaviest fighting occurred at Telica, where 50 loyal troops and 23 invaders were killed.

THE GOVERNMENT insisted that "peace reigns" throughout Nicaragua except in the areas around Molejones and the Olama plains, where planes from Costa Rica landed invaders on Sunday and Monday.

The Foreign Ministry announced however, that it has been reliably informed that three schooners carrying "revolutionary elements and arms" were on the way to Nicaragua from Cuba.

Commencement exercises will be held at 7:30 p. m. with the presentation of diplomas and various awards and scholarships. (Sun Photo).

Reiterates Support For Strauss

Gives Opinions At First News Meet in 3 Weeks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today that the Geneva foreign ministers meeting had not yet, in his opinion, made sufficient progress to warrant holding a summit conference.

The chief executive, in his first news conference in three weeks, told more than 200 reporters he was willing to define satisfactory progress rather liberally. But even so, he said, the meeting going on now had not yet produced sufficient evidence to justify planning for a top level meeting later in the summer.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS of the president's news conference:

—He said any injection of anti-Semitism into the Senate confirmation battle over Secretary of Commerce Lewis Strauss would be a tragic, sad affair, completely unwarranted by Strauss' highest type character and ability.

—He labeled as completely untrue a charge by John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, that he was basically against labor in the steel negotiations. In this connection, Eisenhower said his interest in big business men was only slight compared to his interest in the ultimate fate of the working classes.

—AS FOR THE difference between the armed services on the missile program, Eisenhower said he was standing behind the defense plans he submitted to Congress in the late winter, pending completion of new study of the missile program by the secretary of defense.

The President was questioned from a number of different angles about the steel negotiations. The first inquiry was whether he might invoke the Taft-Hartley law and seek an 80-day cooling off period if a strike begins July 1. The President said he would have to wait for that time before arriving at a decision.

BIRTH OF GIRL UPS FAMILY TOTAL TO 'BAKER'S DOZEN'

HAWTHORNE, Calif. (UPI)—The admiring group of 12 children gazing at the new-born child of 28-year-old Mrs. Alicia Garnica today had a right to be proud—they were the baby's brothers and sisters.

Her husband, Gene, 43, a truck driver, took it all in stride. "That makes a baker's dozen," he said. Mrs. Garnica said she and her husband were married when she was 16 and have had a child almost every year since.

The other children are: Gloria, 15; Robert, 13; Irene, 12; Romana, 11; Martha, 10; Gene, 8; Ellen, 7; Carroll, 5; Anna Marie, 6; Alicia, 3; Marcelino, 2, and Lydia, 1.

2 Men, 7 Children Found Safe On Mississippi

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Two men and five children, missing and feared drifting in the Mississippi in a small boat for five hours, were found safe near Memphis Tuesday night.

Bill Urdak, 28, his two children, Johnny 3, and Michele, 6, Army Sgt. Virgil Green, 28, of Ft. Benning, Ga. and his three children, Billy, 12, David, 10, and Diane, 8, had been sought by nearly 30 boats that scoured the river below Memphis.

The men said they put their 14-foot motorboat in McKeller Lake intending to reach the river channel and go up river to land at the Memphis waterfront. Their wives drove to the landing place. Urdak and Green said that as they reached the main channel the boat's motor began missing and they turned into an inlet and beached their craft.

They said they hailed passing boats but no one heard them. Urdak was fully clothed. The rest wore only bathing suits, but life preservers helped them keep warm.

The men's wives waited three hours at the landing, then called police, who alerted the Coast Guard and city marine rescue squadron.

A search boat found the men and children after a two-hour hunt.

Long May Not Be Able to End Term of Office

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—The acting Louisiana governor said today that Gov. Earl Long, mentally ill in a Galveston hospital, may be unable to complete his term of office.

Lt. Gov. Leher Frazier, acting chief executive of the Bayou State in Long's absence, said it is possible the fiery 63-year-old Long may never serve another day as governor of Louisiana. His third four-year term ends in May, 1960.

AT THE REQUEST of Long's family, Probate Judge Hugh Gibson Tuesday pronounced Long dangerous to himself and to others and ordered him committed for psychiatric treatment at John Sealy Hospital here. The order said Long was mentally and physically ill.

The hospital said in a medical bulletin late Tuesday that chances for the colorful Louisiana political leader's recovery are "excellent."

AT BATON ROUGE, Frazier told United Press International "there is no doubt that he will be out for the rest of the fiscal session of the Legislature but that has another two weeks to go, but nobody knows yet whether he will be able to serve out the rest of his term as governor of Louisiana."

"We hope that he will be able to return, but none of us are too hopeful. It is possible he has served his last day as governor. The main thing we all want is for him to recover his health."

MRS. LONG, who has been at her husband's bedside since he was flown secretly to Galveston Saturday, was scheduled to return to the mansion in Baton Rouge today and talk to members of her husband's administration.

"We are letting things ride for a few days," Frazier said. "I plan to talk to Mrs. Long when she arrives later today, and we will know more about the situation then."

Frazier said Long had been working hard enough in recent weeks to "kill a man 20 years younger."

Never Make a Martyr

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Martyr-making in politics is an extra hazardous occupation, roughly equivalent to juggling nitroglycerine or putting one's head into a lion's mouth.

The Democratic leadership in the Senate is so scintillating about making a martyr of Commerce Secretary Lewis Strauss (who would also be a wealthy, powerful and possibly a vindictive martyr) that a Senate press coop pamphlet made this off-record prediction:

"I will bet even money that Strauss is confirmed by one vote, and that Lyndon will contrive it that way."

THIS FORECAST is a rich nutshell of political savvy. It contains a high compliment to the adroitness of Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson. To be able to contrive a one-vote majority out of the ingredients of 98 Senatorial prima donnas would be close to sheer magic.

Of the 34 Republicans, it is expected that only one (Langer of North Dakota) will vote against Strauss. But how to line up 17 Democrats, and no more than 17? How to cope with absentees and stragglers, to make up the bare majority? It would be the work of parliamentary genius.

THE IDEA OF a one-vote confirmation also carries the seed of deepest cunning. Should it come out that way, Strauss (as the Democrats see it) would be endorsed only by Republicans, Southerners and "isolationists."

Nobody could say (at the Democratic National Convention, for instance) that the Democratic party had stamped for approval a man associated with the Dixon-Yates contract, with the rejection of J. Robert Oppenheimer, with the interests of "private" power over "public" power. More, should the Secretary be confirmed by whatever count, nobody could say that the Democrats had spitefully ganged up on an appointee of the ever-popular Ike.

ON THE OTHER hand, a slip-up might be a Democratic disaster of large magnitude. Martyrs in politics are always rising to plague their persecutors. A current example is Gov. Christopher Del Sesto (R) of Rhode Island who, won a minority-party, upset victory in 1958 because people felt he was "counted out" by the Democratic opposition in the previous election.

The great Andrew Jackson made a winning campaign for the presidency in 1828 by claiming that a "corrupt bargain" involving Speaker Henry Clay had beaten him in 1824. In the same Jacksonian period a Senate confirmation vote of Martin Van Buren as Minister to Britain came to a tie. Like Strauss, Van Buren was already in office, and the tie-breaker of Vice President Calhoun tossed little Van out of the London Embassy like a modern jet ejection seat. There was this historical dialogue on the subject:

CALHOUN: "HE will never kick, sir, never kick."

Majority Leader Benton: "You have broken a minister, and made a Vice President."

It should not go unnoticed that Clay and Calhoun, both every bit as ambitious as Lyndon Johnson to be President, were victims of backfiring martyr-making. It may also be worth noting that Van Buren, who did become both Vice President and President, earned the nickname of Little Magician by being every bit as shrewd and adroit in politics as Lyndon Johnson.

IT IS SENATOR Johnson more than any other Democrat, whose presidential chances could be blasted by a misfire on the Strauss nomination. Conversely, Johnson stands to make political hay if (a) he can vote against Strauss and if (b) his vote falls just barely in the minority and thus does not cause the Secretary to be rejected.

THIS is why. Should Johnson vote with the 33 Republicans and an additional handful of Southerners and "isolationists," he would go to the Democratic Convention with a false and misleading label.

NOBODY IS LESS Republican than the Democratic Majority Leader, and very few are less Southern than the man who is today sponsoring a "moderate" Civil Rights bill. As the "father" of nearly all the space legislation in the last two Congresses, Johnson is no isolationist either.

Hence, although he is friendly toward Strauss and downright chummy with President Eisenhower, Senator Johnson is very likely to vote against the pair of them, while hoping that his vote will do neither of them (nor himself) any harm.

These are some of the wheels-within-wheels that are whirling in the making, not just of the 14th Commerce Secretary, but also of the 33rd U. S. President.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

I well can remember
In the day far away.
You saw less on the beach
Than on the streets today.

Guess the above classifies me as an old-timer.

SPENT THE AFTERNOON sitting on the bench at the top of the steps leading down to the beach.

Figured it was more restful sitting on the bench there than standing on the corner—to watch the girls go by.

But the thought came to me that the only difference between sitting on a bench at the beach and on a bench on Palm Canyon Drive is a matter of geography. The scenery is similar.

THERE'S ONE THING about automation—these new labor-saving machines—that I have noticed.

The men and women who operate them become frustrated. They cannot argue with the machines because they won't talk back.

So they take it out on each other.

Bad for togetherness.

DON'T KNOW what they are going to do with those piles of dirt at the site of the new spa on Indian Avenue where the Indiana Mineral Baths were.

But I know one thing.

Many a mother is doing the family washing more often.

These high dirt hills made a dandy place for the kids to slide down.

TWO WEEKS ago, in preparation for my vacation, I went into training.

Handicapped the horses at Hollywood every day, keeping track of the results and when I was ready to make my first trip to the track, I was a comfortable $36.10 ahead.

But the results were so different.

The theory was good but the practice—lousy.

COMPLAINED ABOUT it to Mrs. G. and she had the answer, as usual.

"You see, you ran your horses on slick paper where they could just slide across. But the horses run in the dirt."

"What you should have done was get a slick, go out into the desert and write your calculations in the sand."

Logical.

LAST SATURDAY, Memorial Day was observed in all states of the Union but nine.

Today it is Memorial Day in those states—Confederate Memorial Day—the observation of the birthday of Jefferson Davis.

So if you are from Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee or Texas, you observe the day today.

KNOW WHERE the geographical center of the United States is? (As if you cared.)

Last year the precise spot was in Smith County, Kansas. But since Alaska and Hawaii came in as states, it jumped north and west to Ponderosa, Ore.

The news from London is excellent. Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher have arrived.

"I will soon give up my movie career to become just a plain housewife," said Miss Taylor plainly. She added that this would take place "after I make three or four more pictures."

BUT WHAT THE heck. You cannot blame a girl for making a last million. Before she settles down to just plain Liz. It is an inspiration to every Just Plain Housewife in our neighborhood.

It is not as easy to be just a plain housewife as you would think. That is where Miss Taylor may find a problem and I am glad to give her a little advice.

IN THE FIRST place, a plain housewife spends most of her time trying not to be so blamed plain. Fact, if you call a housewife "plain," I advise you to smile when you say it.

If you say it to your own house, don't bother to smile. Duck!

The plain housewife rises in the morning and takes the curlers from her plain hair—"The beauty parlor charged me $3.90 and LOOK at it!"

SHE LOOKS AT her plain face in the mirror. And the bathroom scales show plainly that something new has been added. Pretty soon she is tapping the spoon on the coffee cup and giving Plain Joe across the table the plain, ungarbled word.

"Do you think I am plain?" she demands.

"Howzat!" says Joe, coming out of the sports page. "Sure you are doll. You are plain as all get out. That is what I like about you."

The lady then bursts into tears.

"You heel!"

NATURALLY, MISS Taylor does not foresee this sort of thing. She is dreaming a little soap-opera dream. Miss Taylor has never been a Plain Housewife. She does not realize that the trouble is that it is so terribly plain.

"Just a plain housewife," says Miss Taylor. And through her pretty head runs a procession of scenes—and old-fashioned hollyhock garden, the wind blowing the curtains, dimity frock and a dab of flour on the nose.

Home to this little four-room scatter comes Eddie. He chants off a few romantic bars outside the gate.

Nothing could be plainer.

NOW, AS MOST plain housewives know, it does not work quite like that. First, the hollyhocks must be sprayed against rose thorns. Also cultivated—it is rough on the hands even with gardening gloves.

In the cozy, four-room bungalow, the washing machine has busted down. This may seem like part of the simple, plain life. But it is more frustrating than a Just Plain Movie Actress can imagine.

WHEN THE HERO of this sylvan scene comes home, he often runs into the wheelbarrow. The driveway was made in such a way that you cannot see the gardening tools as you swing toward the garage.

He chants off a few romantic bars. And it is not "I Want to Dance All Night."

"BLAST!"

THESE ARE JUST some of the things a girl should consider. Before she gives up movies to become a plain housewife. Not that we are throwing off on the housewife, you understand. She is the backbone of the Nation.

But the life is awfully hard on her back.

EARL WILSON:

Flynn's Wife Saw Him Recently

NEW YORK — I ran into Mrs. Errol Flynn at the Vovray restaurant and asked her how things were with Mr. Errol Flynn.

"I haven't seen him in a year and a half," replied Mrs. Errol Flynn concerning Mr. Errol Flynn.

"What are you planning to do about it?" I asked Mrs. Errol Flynn.

"What can you do about it?" the lady shrugged. I did not answer as I didn't wish to curdle the quiche lorraine which the celebrated matre d', Robert, had just set before me.

"Do you like it this way?" I asked Mrs. Flynn, the former dancer Pat Wynore. "Oh, this isn't the life at all," she said.

"The last time I saw him was when I came back from Europe to see him open in a play in Detroit."

"You lived for a while on a boat off Mallorca," I mentioned.

"What happened to that?" the lady shrugged. I did not answer as I didn't wish to curdle the quiche lorraine which the celebrated matre d', Robert, had just set before me.

"One might wonder," I said, "that you're still married."

"I just got married to stay married," she said. "Then when you have a daughter, it's complicated."

Flynn, she said, contributes to the daughter's support, while she supports herself doing her act. Did she hear from her famous husband ever?

"Once in a while, by telephone," she smiled.

"Do you expect to hear from him or see him soon?" I asked.

"Gee, I don't know, Errol," she said. "I mean Earl! It's hard to say Earl after you get used to pronouncing it Errol."

I thought to myself that the way we run into each other in New York and Hollywood, she sees Earl much more often than she lays eyes on Errol. It's obvious, though, that she has no plans for changing her Errol.

Dinah Shore reached into New York and grabbed Sid Caesar's TV pal Carl Reiner for a writer-actor contract for next year. "It's a big step forward," Carl said. "Step! It's 3,000 miles away and means moving the family and everything."

Reiner has a dream deal. He must appear in five shows himself but, as writer, can write himself into as many as he wishes.

Reiner and Peter Lawford have made a pilot film (about a TV writer) which could prevent his taking the Shore spot. "I like the pilot but evidently the sponsors are buying horses this year," he says. "If our TV writer had a couple of guns, we might sell it."

Debbie Reynolds told us she "just doesn't have time" to see King Baudouin of Belgium this trip. "You're not going to become Queen of Belgium, then?" we asked, and Debbie repeated: "I'm not good at forecasting my future."

Actress Gia Scala and her beau, agent Danny Hollywood, got stranded in a stalled elevator for two hours — alone. . . . One-time headwater Jack Entratter (now of the Las Vegas Sands) is one of the investors in the Eddie Levison-Eddie Torres Hotel Fremont group which just took over the Las Vegas Riviera. . . . Portland Allen and her bridegroom are returning from a honeymoon trip in the Orient, while Gene McGrath and Connie Towers are on one in France and Switzerland.

Jack Paar (and collaborator John Reddy) are getting a whopping $35,000 advance from Little Brown for Jack's book (Doubleday offered 40 grand) — and Look, which'll run three big chunks, is paying another bundle. "I may make more money from the book than from NBC," says Paar. Collaborator Reddy, who's with Reader's Digest, is a former radio-TV producer who used to employ Paar and lend him money. He also kept all Paar's memos, some humorous, some blistering, which are now as precious as Utrillos. Possible book title: "My Saber Is Bent."

EARL'S PEARLS — A wolfish character told it to his date: "You know where bad little girls go — everywhere!"

WISH I'D SAID THAT — Marrying a girl for her looks is like buying a house for its paint job.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH . . . A man lost his wife in a big department store and might never have found her if he hadn't started talking to a pretty girl.

George Gobel tells of an untrustworthy guy: "He's the kind who'd sneak into your room at 4 a.m., steal the string from your pajama pants, then yell 'Fire!'"

That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Pictures in Doubt

HOLLYWOOD — Columbia Pictures announced Glenn Ford as Kim Novak's co-star in the upcoming "Strangers When We Meet" but the chances of Glenn doing it are now as remote as Greta Garbo doing a nightclub act in Las Vegas—since he discovered the script deals with adultery. Glenn is still involved in the production of a local religious show on TV called "Faith of Our Children" and doesn't want to become involved in a censorship hassle.

Another big picture deal went down the drain when Bing Crosby discovered Jean Simmons won't be available as his leading lady in "Bachelor's Baby." Fox has cancelled it as a result.

THE BIG DRIVE behind the bustup of that multi-million dollar production company, Hecht-Hill-Lancaster, is Harold Hecht's. He has been associated with Burt Lancaster since the beginning of Burt's fabulous career, first as agent, then as partner. Now he wants to prove he can be swinging success without Burt.

He turned down the job as production chief for Paramount when Y. Frank Freeman retired because he doesn't want the headaches of running a major studio. His first production chore away from Burt will be even Hunter's crime yarn, "A Matter of Conviction," starring Glenn Ford.

ESTHER WILLIAMS is signing her checks and correspondence "Mrs. Ben Gage" again.

Concise advice from Vincent Price: "The only thing that can cheat a woman out of the last word is an echo."

Martha Hyer farmed out her collection of Old Masters (paintings, that is) for a charity exhibit staged by the Los Angeles Council of Jewish Women.

His Hollywood chums can't figure out how Leland Hayward inevitably turns up with a Broadway smash (currently Ethel Merman's "Gypsy") and yet can't ever seem to get off the dime as a picture producer (his most recent film flop being Spencer Tracy's "Old Man and the Sea").

A NATIONAL MAGAZINE is proceeding once with its piece on Susan Hayward, despite her refusal to be interviewed and despite the mag's offer of $30,000 for the star's story. They're digging the dissa-and-data on Susie out of her Hollywood "friends"—and the LA police files.

Mort Sahl at the ballet? Right. His girl friend Phyllis Kirk dragged the Beatrix's idol down to the Shrine Auditorium on his night off from the Crescendo to watch Galina Ulanova dance "Giselle."

The Silly Season arrived ahead of time in Hollywood: Jean and Dusty Negulesco watched Greg Bautzer getting traffic-ticketed on Sunset Boulevard. While the con was writing out the ticket, Greg nonchalantly picked up his car phone and called a number. Jean turned to Dusty and gasped, "How about THAT for a lawyer—ALREADY he's talking to the judge."

CHANNEL CHATTER—There's nothing new under the TV sun. Warner-TV's Bill Orr told an assistant, "Let's have two more like '77 Sunset Strip'—after all, you can't knock success." And that's how two private-eye TV-entures were born: the new Hawaiian Eye series starring Bob Conrad will be located in Hawaii and Bourbon Street Blues will be backgrounded by New Orleans.

After all that publicity hullabaloo, Virginia Gibson abdicated her throne as Miss Pepsi-Cola and was quietly paid off by the Pepsi people.

BOB DENVER was all signed and sealed to essay Dwayne Hickman's sidekick in Fox-TV's new series, The Adventures of Dobie Gillis, when Uncle Sam moved in and bagged Bob for the Army. Now they're thinking of replacing Bob, who was to have played Dwayne's older brother, with Dwayne's for-real older brother, Darryl Hickman.

Over-the-transom takeout from the front office at Capitol Records: "Hey, boss, bend your ear to this terrific new recording I just made asking you for a raise!"

Maverick's hooves have been trampling Ed Sullivan's Trench as well as Steve Allen's and that's why Ed is trying to follow Steve's lead and steer away from that evening Sunday night time slot. Watch for the move this fall.

Jack Ehrlich Surprised With Birthday Party

The party at the Twin Palms Drive home of the Jack Ehrlichs Friday evening was a surprise birthday celebration for Jack, arranged by his wife, Elaine.

The beautifully arranged flowers which formed the centerpiece for the elaborate buffet table were picked fresh from the garden.

Prior to the buffet dinner, cocktails were served outdoors on the patio where the bar was set up and there was dancing to the hifi.

Among those wishing Jack "Happy Birthday" were Messrs. and Mmes. Sammy Sontag, Bus Libbot, Richard Levin, Lou Taveiman, of Beverly Hills, Jack Silverman of Long Beach, George Meyers of Beverly Hills, Attorney and Mrs. Mervin Schneider of San Francisco.

Also Jerry Nathanson, Mrs. Arthur Samish, Mrs. Adelaide Lubin, George Beebe, Eddie Davidson, Irene Faulkner and Mrs. Peggy Jacobs.

The invitations read, "Come As What You Would Like to Be" and that's exactly what the little guests did as they arrived at the Ranch Club Sunday in a varied assortment of costumes, to help Milo Janis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Janis of 1019 Cielo Drive, celebrate his eighth birthday.

The upstairs room of the Ranch Club had been decorated, by the club, in a multitude of colors including a canopy of streamers that covered the ceiling.

Following dinner, which included a huge birthday cake decorated with space men, rockets and flying saucers, the guests put on a floor show of their own, with each child performing before a live microphone. Ronnie Easton, who played a piano solo, won the prize for best performance for boys, and Nino Watt, who did a ballet dance, won the prize for girls. Judges for best performers were Taylor Dunlevie and Phyllis Flax.

Costume judges were three of Milo's teachers, Mrs. Kerr, teacher at Katherine Finchy; Tricie Jarrett, dance; Mrs. Robert Henwood, Sunday School, who were special guests at the party. Each teacher received a gift from Milo.

Prizes for the most beautiful costume went to Beverly Muhleick who was dressed as a ballerina; most original, Bruce Baldwin, dressed as a surgeon; and funniest, Jon Dunlevie, dressed as a tramp.

Added entertainment was provided by Beverly Midstokke, who performed as "Glamor Gertie" the clown; Jeff Isenagie in a tap dance; Mexican Flirtation dance by Peter Nila and Frances Romero, who also did single numbers; and, to close the show, Dixie Janis and "Glamor Gertie" the clown did a real old-fashioned Charleston.

Favors were distributed and each little guest received a prize before leaving.

IF YOU HAVEN'T A WINNER THIS WEEK erase the X's from your card and save it to play against Safeway's ads next week-end in this paper, and each succeeding ad of the contest.

ROBERT H. GIBSON, of the Gibson Wine Co., El Grove Calif., has been elected chairman of the Board of Directors for the Wine Institute. It was announced at the organization's 25th annual meeting in San Francisco. A prominent California vintner, Gibson is also a longtime resident of Palm Desert, where his family maintains a perennial winter home.

CURB STANDARDS TO BE CHECKED

A shortage in the amount of concrete used on a local subdivision job, and noted by the Palm Springs Engineering Department, has brought about a full scale investigation of violations of the Palm Springs building standards.

Council members heard this week at their conference session that the situation was a "lot worse than expected" and that the city engineering department had been allowing the installation of concrete curbs and gutters "an inch or better below the city standards."

TWO POINTS SEEMED to be headed for council approval at its regular meeting. First, the tightening and strict observance of the seven-inch requirements, and second, in the case of Vista Los Palmas, a bond in the amount of the job to cover any breakage during the next two years.

SIMILAR INSPECTIONS will be made on other jobs currently under way in the city and if they are found to be below requirements, bonds will also be imposed on them.

And after the discussion of the subject, the council was pretty well in agreement that there was something wrong with city inspections.

"After all," said Ruth Hardy, "it isn't for a councilman to go around looking down sewer holes and measuring the height of curbs. It's a fault of the administration."

ACTING CITY Engineer Hal Moore recommended that a payment of $750 be made into a city fund by Alexander "to pay for any breakdown of the curb," but Alexander issued a strong objection to the plan.

"If this job is not in accordance with accepted procedure, I want it taken out and I want every other job taken out," said Alexander. "You cannot compromise our integrity."

ALEXANDER SAID that the same contractors who work for his work on other jobs in the city, and for "the past three years have been using the same forms to pour curbs."

Official action on the matter is expected to be taken at the regular session.

WASHINGTON-BOUND is Maj. Gen. Joseph D. Caldara, Air Force Director of Flight Safety Research at Norton Air Force Base, San Bernardino, who has been appointed to the newly organized office of Deputy Inspector General-Safety, which embraces a consolidation of air, ground, missile and nuclear safety programs. As director of Flight Safety Research for the past 4 1/2 years, General Caldara has been a frequent figure in Palm Springs, where he headed a series of Air Force-Aircraft Industry conferences designed to explore all fields of safety in the air. He will take over his new office in Washington effective July 1. A veteran of 28 years service, General Caldara is credited with reducing the Air Force aircraft accident rate to an all-time low in 1958.

SUESS SUFFERS INJURIES TO RIBS

Riverside County Planning Director Tyler Suess suffered a cracked rib cage and a fractured rib in a freak accident aboard a bus completing a 500-mile inspection tour of "problem" areas in the county.

The bus, headed for Riverside on Highway 60, stopped suddenly near Marino to avoid hitting a sports car which Driver Bob Nathan said had pulled suddenly onto the road in front of the bus.

SUESS, WHO HAD been standing in the aisle talking to the commissioners, was catapulted backwards by the force of the halt. He struck a railing and slumped to the floor.

At Riverside Community Hospital, where the director was taken, Dr. Cabe Wortley said that Suess had suffered a cracked rib cage and a fractured rib. The medic said that Suess would probably be hospitalized about a week longer.

SUESS' WORK WILL be handled by three associate planners—Douglas Black, William Flint and Tom Webb—during his hospitalization. The tour of "problem" areas had included a lengthy look at desert locations. Reports on the area will probably be held up pending Suess' return to his desk.

Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz To Give Baccalaureate Talk

Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz, of Temple Isaiah, will deliver the principal sermon at the traditional Palm Springs High School seniors June 7.

The baccalaureate service for 181 graduates begins at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

THE PROGRAM opens with the "Romeo and Juliet Overture" and the procession, "Entrance and March of the Peers," played by the high school orchestra.

Dr. Frederick A. Barnhill, of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, will then deliver the invocation, followed by the singing of "Faith of Our Fathers" by the graduating class.

The A Capella Choir next will sing "I Have Longed for Thy Saving Health," followed by responsive reading led by class president Gary Soule.

RABBI HURWITZ will deliver the baccalaureate sermon and the prayer will be offered by the Very Rev. William G. Goodrow, of Our Lady of Solitude Church.

Benediction will be offered by Dr. Barnhill and the program will close with the recessional.

Following the formal baccalaureate, the high school Parent-Teachers Association will host a reception in the court area to honor members of the Class of 1959 and their guests.

Myrtle Preble Services to Be Held at Banning

Myrtle Laird Preble, mother of Villager George Warren Preble, died Monday in Banning at the age of 85.

Mrs. Preble, a native of Eldon, Iowa, had been active in Eastern Star and other Masonic activities in which Village citizens had an opportunity to know her.

In addition to her son, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ethel Peterson of Banning, and a nephew, Warren Maple, also of Banning.

Mrs. Preble will lie in state until 2 p.m., Friday, in the Wiefel and Son Mortuary in Banning. Funeral will be held at the Wiefel Chapel in Banning and interment will be at Sunnyslope Cemetery in the same city.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to the Heart Fund.

China Olympic Ouster Nets Demand U.S. Quit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States should withdraw from the 1960 Olympic Games if the Nationalist Chinese are not allowed to compete, in the opinion of Rep. Francis E. Dorn (R-N.Y.).

Dorn's statement followed an accusation by the U.S. State Department Tuesday that the International Olympic Committee had bowed to "Communist pressures" in expelling Nationalist China from membership.

DORN CALLED THE expulsion of Nationalist

China "shameful" and that IOC President Avery Brundage of the United States should resign his position in protest.

"The United States must not allow a friend of many years to be pushed aside by Communist blackmail," said Dorn. "We must prove to all our Allies that the United States will support every one of our friends."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT. In a formal statement read by Department Press Officer Lincoln White, declared, "It is evident that Communist pressures have been directed to obtaining the expulsion of the Chinese Nationalists."

The department said that it assumed the action was "a prelude to pressures directed to obtain the later readmission of the Chinese Communists."

EXPULSION OF THE Nationalist Chinese from the IOC took place at the IOC meeting in Munich last Friday. The action had been requested by the Soviet Union and approved on the grounds that Nationalist China "no longer represents sports in the entire country of China."

The Nationalist Chinese were told they could apply for readmission to the IOC as representative of Taiwan Formosa, rather than China.

Communist China recently withdrew from the IOC in protest over the presence of the Nationalist Chinese. Before that both groups had participated in Olympic Committee activities.

Brown Favored by 12-5 to Beat Rosi, Keep Title

Bout Will Have TV Across U.S.

By JACK CUDDY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Champion Joe Brown, slender Negro boxer-puncher, is favored at 12-5 to beat Italian Paola Rosi, a baldish raw-boned slugger, tonight in their battle of "oldest men" for the world lightweight crown.

They are the oldest pair to fight for the 135-pound title: Brown, 33, and Rosi, 31. But each is still such an effective puncher that some "sportsmen" are offering 7-5 that the bout at Uline Arena does not last its scheduled 15 rounds, regardless of the winner.

PROMOTER GOLDIE Ahearn expects a near-capacity 7,500 and a gate of more than $50,000, despite two days of heavy rain that curtailed somewhat the sale of tickets for this indoor show.

Washington's first title fight in 18 years will be televised nationally by ABC at 10 p.m. e.d.t., with a local blackout on a 100-mile radius. The last championship fight here was on May 23, 1941, when Joe Louis won on a seventh-round disqualification over big Buddy Baer.

BROWN, WHO NOW lives at Baton Rouge, La., is making his seventh defense of the title in his 100th professional fight. He hopes within the next year to equal or surpass the eight successful defenses made by the late Benny Leonard who retired undefeated.

However, Joe indicated in his last three performances that he may be slipping. He kept his title by an eyelash after 15 furious rounds with southpaw Kenny Lane. He lost a non-title decision to Johnny Bussio but managed to beat Bussio, in a title fight, last Feb. 11, over the full 15-round route.

Slumping Indians Lose to Senators; Dodgers Beaten, 5-4

United Press International

They lit torches and exploded fireworks for Hoyt Wilhelm, and you gotta admit the guy rates even Roman candles for pitching Baltimore to within a half game of first place.

All this to-do took place Tuesday night when the veteran 35-year-old knuckleballer reeled off his eighth straight victory without a defeat by beating the Chicago White Sox, 3-2.

WILHELM SCATTERED seven hits and struck out eight while boosting the Orioles into second place.

The Senators defeated the slumping first-place Indians, 3-2, in 10 innings; the Tigers blanked the Yankees, 2-0, and the Athletics topped the Red Sox, 5-3.

MILWAUKEE STRETCHED its National League lead to 2½ games with a 3-0 triumph over San Francisco; Cincinnati nipped Los Angeles, 5-4, and Harvey Perfect Game Haddix of Pittsburgh shut out St. Louis, 3-0 after the Cardinals beat the Pirates, 3-1, in the completion of a game suspended on May 3. Rain postponed the Philadelphia-Chicago game.

Ted Williams slammed the 2-500th hit of his career but it wasn't enough, and the Athletics came from behind to overcome the last place Red Sox.

10-1 SHOT WINNER IN 180TH RUNNING OF SWEEPSTAKES

EPSOM, England (UPI) — Parthia, a 10-1 shot, owned by Sir Humphrey de Trafford, galloped to a smashing victory today in the 180th and richest running of the English Derby.

Fidalgio finished second and Shantung edged out Saint Crespin III, one of the favorites from Prince Aly Khan's stable, for third place.

Dan Cupid, owned by Mrs. P. A. B. Widener of Philadelphia, and Arvak, owned by Mrs. Josephine Bay Paul of New York, finished out of the money in England's first $100,000 race.

Britain's greatest classic for 2-year-old thoroughbreds carried a gross purse of $119,504 and a net of $101,018 to the winner.

Charlie Black Hits Two Home Runs for Winning Biltmores

Neil Green gave up a single to the first man he faced, then retired the next 21 batters he faced, as the Biltmore Hotel laced the Desert Sun Chi-Chi, 11-0, in the opening game of the Desert Softball League.

A doubleheader tonight will send the Mexican Colony against Coachella Valley Savings and Loan at 7:30 p.m. and the Palm Springs Builders Supply against California Water and Telephone Company at 9:25 p.m. Both games are at the Polo Grounds here.

GREEN ALTERNATED a jet-like rise with a blistering fast ball and rang up 13 strikeouts in registering the one-hitter.

Meanwhile his teammates were collecting nine hits and utilizing five Chi Chi miscues to score their impressive 11-run total. Two of the hits were home runs by catcher Charlie Black.

SECOND ALL-STAR TILT SEEN IN L.A.

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick's okay and ironing out such details as radio and television commitments is all that stands between a second major league All-Star game in Los Angeles in August.

Executive Vice President Birdie Tettbetts of the Milwaukee Braves said Tuesday club owners and players had approved a second game and tentatively selected Los Angeles as the site. A likely date is Aug. 3 — an open date for both leagues.

The regular All-Star game is set for July 7 in Pittsburgh. Frick has indicated he will go along with a second All-Star game which was advanced by player representative Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies as a means of increasing the players' pension fund and providing cash for minor league aid and youth baseball programs.

The major leagues held two All-Star games during the war with the second game against former major leaguers in service.

Tettbetts said the plan next year will be to hold the two games in American League cities and extend the normal All-Star break to four days to permit playing of both contests.

Ingemar's Trainer Harassed by Girls

By OSCAR FRALEY

United Press International

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (UPI) — One thing certain, Ingemar Johansson won't get homesick while training for his heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson.

This may well be, as pop-eyed trainer Whitley Bimstein puts it, "the weirdest training camp in history." That's because of a mink and jewel resort setting where women, anathema to the fight mob, outnumber the men on the premises.

BUT THE SNOW, happy Swedish heavyweight finds it completely satisfactory because:

1. Mama Johansson is on hand to do the cooking, a la Svenska.
2. Ingemar and his brother's fiancées, both pretty and both addicted to shorts, provide constant inspiration.
3. The entire Scandinavian delegation is quartered in a $150,000 mansion from where they "golf" and swim. Ingemar "breaks the hundred, thank you".
4. Ingemar gets the final homey touch because his training quarters are set up in the Grossinger ski lodge.

JOHANSSON SHRUGGED. "My right hand will be ready," he says of the weapon which crushed Eddie Machen. "So will I."

His calisthenics also fracture Bimstein. Ingo works hard and his exercises include a hip swing comparable only to a Swedish hula, and a punching session against what he calls a "slung-ballen."

CHEVY BESTS

Independent experts and official facts and figures prove Chevrolet's ahead of its field in seven big ways.

BEST BRAKES . . . In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NAS-CAR*, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. BEST TRADE-IN . . . Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.† Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." BEST STYLE . . . Popular Science magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling . . . It's the only car of the leading low-priced three that's unmistakably modern in every line. BEST ECONOMY . . . No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car. BEST ROOM . . . Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.† make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. BEST ENGINE . . . Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Ascorpe V8's unstinted praise. As Sports Cars Illustrated puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price." BEST RIDE . . . You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But Motor Trend magazine expresses it this way: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

GOLF COURSE TO BENEFIT FIRST

In the only reference to date to the new city of Palm Springs fiscal budget, City Manager Dan Wagner this week told the council that some determination as to the amount of money to be given to the Chamber of Commerce for advertising, publicity and convention bureau, should be made.

Wagner reported to the council that the chamber has submitted a budget for $94,000 for the coming fiscal year.

WAGNER ADDED THAT members of the chamber had told him that the funds for the additional monies were to be furnished through the increases in business license fees.

Mayor Frank Bogert said that the money, some $74,000 in additional funds, was to be used for the purchase and running of the Palm Springs Municipal Golf Course, and then added that it would be after July 1 before we know if we have a golf course, right now it's a little nebulous.

COUNCILMAN GEORGE Beebe said that he believed that it was well understood that some of the additional funds collected through the additional license fees would be given to the chamber, and that it was so stated by him during the hearings on the golf course.

But Councilwoman Mary Carlin said that she "would not have voted for it (license fee increase) if it was not for the golf course, and if the golf course is not acquired, I am for returning the money to the merchants and businessmen."

COUNCILMAN JOHN Wood took somewhat of the same stand as Mrs. Carlin, adding that he was in favor of increasing the tax rate so additional funds could be given to the chamber, "then everyone in town can help with the publicity of the town, not just the merchants."

Bogert pointed out that he wanted it understood that the city had "no fight or argument with the Chamber of Commerce," and indicated that something would be worked out.

He said that most of the residents of the town believed that the funds were going to the Municipal Golf Course, and added that there was apparently a misunderstanding, because of reports in the press, about the disposition of the $70,000 that the city would realize from the license increase.

CITY MANAGER Wagner said there have been considerable protest by business license payers to City Clerk Mary Gene Ringwald, when the license fees were paid.

City Finance Director Shelby Langford told the council that the original plan for the additional funds was for them to be put aside to carry any deficit in the operation of the golf course, and when the course was operating in the black, additional funds could be released for use by the chamber.

Further discussion on the matter is sure, but in the meanwhile City Manager Wagner is chopping the chamber budget down to about $74,000—or about $10,000 more than last year's budget.

Trans-World Jet Sets New Record

LOS ANGELES, UPI — A Trans-World Airlines 707 jet airliner today held the new commercial aircraft flight record between Washington and Los Angeles—making the run in 5 hours, 3 minutes Friday.

The old record of 6 hours, 51 minutes was set by a piston aircraft.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: While my husband and I usually agree, there is one point on which he is unreasonable. He insists that because he is a veteran, the government will bury him. I want to put him away in style, regardless of the cost. Please tell me how to win my point?

LOVING WIFE
DEAR LOVING: Don't argue about it. Get together with your friendly neighborhood undertaker and find out if he has a convenient long-term "lay-away" plan.

DEAR ABBY: I have a hairdresser. She is terrific but she talks too much. The minute I get in her chair she talks about her husband, her dog, her trailer and the other women who come in. She even talks about the people who work in the shop. She drives me crazy. I can't pick up a magazine and get through a story for all her interruptions. She is just starting out and I would like to send my friends to her but wonder if I should. I could use some advice.

STANDING APPOINTMENT
DEAR STANDING: (and you are standing for a lot): If you want to do your hairdresser a favor, tell her in a very diplomatic way that women come into a shop to have their beauty work done and to relax. Quiet is essential to relaxation. You won't have to draw her any pictures.

DEAR ABBY: My married brother was operated on for appendicitis and he was given a big dose of ether. While he was coming out of the ether he kept calling for his mother. His wife was there and she was terribly put out because he called for his mother instead of for her. Now my brother says he can't remember calling for anybody. My sister-in-law is very mad at my brother over this. Please tell me if she can hold my brother responsible for what he said under ether?

IN BETWEEN
DEAR IN: Any doctor will tell you that is only "natural" to call for "Mother" under these circumstances. The wife should not feel hurt or slighted. When she raises a son, she will realize that no matter how old a man grows, he is still his mother's "child."

THE 920 SPOT on the radio dial is a lucky number for the Hal Kapp and Ted Smith real estate office in Palm Desert, which this week marked its 920th consecutive news broadcast on Radio Station KDES, which, coincidentally, is 920 on the dial. Station representatives Harry Voelker, left, and Milt Jones exchange congratulations with Hal Kapp and Ted Smith, who have sponsored daily news broadcasts over KDES since the station first hit the airwaves.
